

BAAP 2008 – Programme

Day One: Monday, 31st March

9.00 – 10.30	Registration and Coffee; Poster hanging time
10.30 – 10.45	Opening Address
Session One: 10.45 – 12.25
10.45 – 11.05	Simulating accents of Swedish G. BRUCE
11.05 – 11.25	Co-existing rhythms and the prosodic hierarchy: a study of Estonian, English, and Spanish F. NOLAN & E. L. ASU
11.25 – 11.45	The prosodic properties of Child Directed Speech: a cross-linguistic study E. PAYNE, L. ASTRUC, B. POST, P. PRIETO & M. VANRELL
11.45 – 12.05	Using PEPS-C as a tool to evaluate the intonation of learners of English J. SETTER, V. STOJANOVIC & P. MARTINEZ-CASTILLA
12.05 – 12.25	Maintaining intonation contours in the brain G. KOCHANSKI
12.25 – 1.30 Lunch
Session Two: 1.30 – 2.30
1.30 – 2.30	Invited Speaker: PROFESSOR MARTIN COOKE Towards a Chemistry of Speech Perception
Session Three: 2.30 – 3.30 POSTER SESSION ONE
3.30 – 4.00 Coffee
Session Four: 4.00 – 5.40
4.00 – 4.20	Variability of vocal fold vibration in Syrian Arabic initial stop sequences B. HESELWOOD & R. RANJOUS
4.20 – 4.40	An acoustic investigation into co-articulation and speech motor control: High vs. low frequency syllables F. HERRMANN

4.40 – 5.00	Intra-speaker co-articulation variability in children: evidence from electropalatographic analysis C. TIMMINS, W. HARDCASTLE, S. WOOD, J. McCANN & J. WISHART
5.00 – 5.20	An EPG study of complex clusters in English N. ZHARKOVA, S. SCHAEFFLER & F. GIBBON
5.20 – 5.40	Modelling pharyngeal (aryepiglottic) stricture and trilling J. ESLING & S. MOISIK
5.40 – 6.00	Poster changeover/Poster Hanging
6.00 – 8.00 Wine Reception

Day Two: Tuesday, 1st April

8.40 – 9.00	Poster changeover/Poster Hanging
Session One: 9.00 – 10.40
9.00 – 9.20	Korean denasalization: further data Y. KIM & M. ASHBY
9.20 – 9.40	Speech rhythm across turn-transitions between native and non-native speakers of English B. SZCZEPEK REED
9.40 – 10.00	Interactionally determined “tune” neutralisation in Greek and English M. KAIMAKI
10.00 – 10.20	On the interplay of phonetic and sequential resources in talk-in-interaction J. LOCAL & G. WALKER
10.20 – 10.40	Phonetic details and communicative function R. OGDEN
Coffee Break: 10.40 – 11.00
Session Two: 11.00 – 12.20
11.00 – 11.20	Labiodentality as an additional articulation in English P. CARTER & J. LOCAL
11.20 – 11.40	An acoustic analysis of the development of standard southern British rhotics in young children

	R. KNIGHT, C. VILLAFANA DALCHER & M. JONES
11.40 – 12.00	Using ultrasound to study postvocalic-/r/ loss in Scottish English E. LAWSON, J. STUART-SMITH & J. SCOBIE
12.00 – 12.20	Perception of long-domain /r/ resonances in good and adverse listening conditions Y. FLORY, A. HEINRICH & S. HAWKINS
Lunch: 12.20 – 1.30
Session Three: 1.30 – 3.00 POSTER SESSION TWO
Session Four: 3.00 – 4.00
3.00 – 3.20	The l-vocalisation trend in young London speech P. ASHBY & B. PARRY
3.20 – 3.40	Word segmentation and perceptual learning in an unfamiliar accent R. SMITH
3.40 – 4.00	Individual variation in L2 perceptual development: the case of rounded German vowels by English learners R. MAYR & P. ESCUDERO
Coffee: 4.00 – 4.20
Session Five: 4.20 – 6.00
4.20 – 4.40	Deep and surface learning in phonetics: Perspectives from a survey of assessment M. ASHBY & A. HIROSE
4.40 – 5.00	A new English pronunciation poll J. WELLS
5.00 – 5.20	What, whence and whither? A phonetic analysis of “wh” in Scottish English M. JONES
5.20 – 5.40	Comparing pitch range across languages: linking judgements to a variety of pitch range measures I. MENNEN, F. SCHAEFFLER & G. DOCHERTY
5.40 – 6.00	Are women really breathier than men or have we just been measuring nasality? A. SIMPSON

Day Three: Wednesday, April 2nd

Session One: 9.00 – 10.20
9.00 – 9.20	Cypriot Greek geminate stops: true geminates or just aspirated singletons? S. ARMOSTI
9.20 – 9.40	Post-lexical geminates in Syrian-Arabic: preliminary results from a cross-dialect investigation Z. M. HASSAN & E. PAYNE
9.40 – 10.00	A new speaker-intrinsic vowel normalisation algorithm for sociophonetics A. FABRICIUS , D. WATT & J. ODDIE
10.00 – 10.20	Phonetic patterns of gemination in Lebanese Arabic G. KHATTAB & J. AL-TAMIMI
10.20 – 10.50 Coffee
Session Two: 10.50 – 12.30
10.50 – 11.10	How is sociophonetic variability learned? G. DOCHERTY, C. LANGSTROF & P. FOULKES
11.10 – 11.30	Perceptual learning of a stress-conditioned allophone K. BARDEN
11.30 – 11.50	Is perception of duration affected by changes in fundamental frequency? R. GALLOWAY
11.50 – 12.10	Effects of the telephone on forensic phonetic analysis K. MCDUGALL, T. HUDSON, S. LAWRENCE & F. NOLAN
12.10 – 12.30	Transmission loss properties of fabrics used in commonly-worn mouth and face coverings D. WATT, C. LLAMAS & P. HARRISON
12.30 – 2.00 Lunch
1.00 – 2.00 BAAP members: Business Meeting
Session Three 2.00 – 3.40
2.00 – 2.20	Sound change and within-speaker variability

	G. DE JONG, F. NOLAN & K. McDOUGALL
2.20 – 2.40	The long and the short and the final: phonological vowel length and prosodic timing in Hungarian L. WHITE & K. MADY
2.40 – 3.00	Vowel height harmony in the North -east of Scotland J. ODDIE
3.00 – 3.20	Elided vowels are not gone E. EFTYCHIOU
Coffee: 3.20 - Close
3.20 – 3.40 BAAP members: Prizes Meeting
3.40 Announcement of prizes; Closing remarks; Depart

Poster Session 1: Monday, 2.30 – 3.30

AHMED, A., KHATTAB, G., CLARMONT, F., & HARRISON, P. Perception and production of Libyan Arabic long and short vowels: does vowel quality matter?
ASHBY, P. Recognising IPA consonants
ASTRUC, L., PAYNE, E., POST, B., PRIETO, P. & VANRELL, M. Stress-acquisition and rhythmic type: Acoustic correlates of stress in English, Catalan and Spanish
BAKER, R., HAWKINS, S. & SMITH R. Perception of phonemically-identical true prefixes and pseudo-prefixes in real words heard in noise
BALL, M Transcribing disordered speech: by target or by realization?
BORMANS, L. & MACKENZIE BECK, J. A cross-linguistic study of voice quality in monolingual and bilingual speakers of Flemish and French
BRYAN, S. Evaluation of the Braille International Phonetic Alphabet and suggestions for its improvement

CHENG, C. & XU, Y. When and how disyllables are contracted into monosyllables in Taiwan Mandarin
DE LEUW, E. Pitch range and rise alignment in German/English bi-linguals in a migrant setting
EVANS, B. & MOREIRAS, C. Variation and change in RP monophthongal vowels: a comparison of male and female speakers
GORDEEVA, O. The relative importance of laryngeal, supralaryngeal and temporal speech production levels in the implementation of the Scottish Vowel Length Rule
HARRISON, P. Formant measurement errors from synthetic speech
HESELWOOD, B., MAHMOODZADE, Z. & BIJANKHAN, M. Phonetic differences distinguishing Persian coronal plosives from affricates between release and vowel onset
JEON, H. What rhythm metrics don't capture: A first and second language study with Korean and English
KRIBA, H. & KHATTAB, G. Acoustic parameters of emphasis in Libyan Arabic
KURTIC, E. Phonetic design of turn-competitive and non-competitive overlaps in multi-party meetings

Poster Session 2: Tuesday, 1.30 – 3.00

KIM, J. Perception and production of English liquids by Korean L1 speakers
KNITTL, L. Acquisition of foreign language phonology: The first steps in learning Czech by English speakers
KUSCHMANN, A., LOWIT, A., MILLER, N. & MENNEN, I. Functional aspects of intonation in a speaker with Foreign Accent Syndrome

LIM, H. Phonological acquisition in three languages: A cross-sectional study of Mandarin, English and Malay
MESSUM, P. Young children don't learn to pronounce by imitation
PUNNOOSE, R. Rhotics in Malayalam
SAMOYLOVA, K. Formant frequency shifts as acoustic cues for tone perception of whispered English vowels
SCHAEFFLER, S., SCOBIE, J. & MENNEN, I. Exploring cross-linguistic differences in articulatory settings
SCOBIE, J., WRENCH, A., STUART-SMITH, J., VAN DER LINDEN, M. & LAWSON, E. Ultrasound tongue imaging: some methodological protocols
SHOCKEY, L. Understanding casual English pronunciation: Syllable structure
STUART-SMITH, J. & ALAM, F. An acoustic analysis of // in Glasgow Asian
STUART-SMITH, J. & SMITH, R. Phonological learning from interactive and mediated speech
ULBRICH, C. L2 acquisition of regional pitch patterns in different speech styles
VERHOEVEN, J. & DAVY, R. Phonetic ear training and IPA transcription: a multimedia approach
YAEGER DROR, M. The continuing saga of American R and its importance to sociolinguistic theories
YUEN, I., LEE, A. & GIBBON, F. Relationship between lingual contact and formant patterns in three English monophthongs
